CATARRH CAUSES CONSUMPTION.

Here's Some Good Advice and Infor mation Worth Knowing.

When a person with a delicate constitution has a tendency to catarrh or consumption—whether this tendency is inherited or results from taking ould assily—it is noticeable that this person invariably incess fisch and loses strength, showing that the nutrition is interfered witherer should at once be placed ander influences that will restore the defective nutrition and tend to invigorate the constitution. fective nutrition are tistion.

It is to be remembered that in every case the pres-sence of extern is an evidence of predisposition to consumption, as the evidence of predisposition to consumption, as the evidence of predisposition to consumption, and be treated with the greatest care and the treatment should be continued until a traces of the catarrib have disappeared.
